Project coordinator for corporate volunteering events

Serve the City at Work organises volunteering events and projects for companies. From company-wide impact days to small-scaled team building events. We organise it from A to Z to make impact in Amsterdam!

Information about the role:

- Are you looking for nice experience in Amsterdam and make impact? You might want to become part of our team as a Project Coordinator.
- As Serve the City at Work project coordinator, you will be responsible for the coordination and the well going of a volunteering project involving a group of volunteers employees from one of our corporate partners.
- This means you can help brief all the participating volunteers about the volunteering activity. You will coordinate on site with the social organization and help on the same task as the volunteers. You will be key to making sure that both volunteers & the organisation are happy with the help!
- What's in it for you? it's a flexible job that you can do during weekdays and manage a team of volunteers!
- Are you interested in being part of our team and take on more volunteering responsibility as project coordinator? Just get in contact with us below.
